America's Oldest and Most Experienced Military History Tour Operator

Professor Anderson Giles has spent 30 years researching WWII in the Pacific. His knowledge of the wartime events in the Mariana's has deep personal ties: his father fought with the 4th Marine Division on Saipan, Tinian and Iwo Jima; his uncle, a 67th Seabee, helped build the North Field runways and atomic bomb pits on Tinian. Andy Giles has been all over the Pacific visiting the various islands of the Pacific campaign. His painting of the B29 Bockscar soaring away from the atomic bomb blast on Nagasaki is prominently displayed on Tinian (front cover of this brochure). His superb documentary film, The Thunder from Tinian, has won well-deserved awards and honors. Andy is an experienced tour leader who has traveled on and escorted many trips with Valor Tours, Ltd. and he has met and interviewed hundreds of veterans associated with the Pacific campaign.
