GUADALCANAL 1942 - 1943

Cover: "Mac" Mackay sits on his LST 342 now beached in the mangroves near Tulagi.
 Black and White photo from the National Archives: First Division Marines storm ashore across Guadalcanal's beaches on D-Day, 7 August 1942, from the attack transport Barnett (AP-11) and attack cargo ship Fomalhaut (AK-22).

The U.S. offensive of WWII in the Pacific Theater began on August 7th, 1942 when U.S. Marines landed on Guadalcanal, Tulagi and Gavutu to establish a foothold upon enemy held territory. Thus began the Allied Advance on the road to Tokyo.

Ceremony at the American Memorial, Guadalcanal

The Solomon Islands campaign lasted twenty months. It was a violent air, land and sea struggle with a determined enemy. This tour offers WWII history and ceremony with sightseeing on this now peaceful and beautiful island. Walk invasion beaches and airstrips – cruise across Iron Bottom Sound past Savo Island, remembering the tremendous losses suffered by the Japanese response to the land invasions. Relics still abound although the jungle now mostly conceals the wounds of battle.

Memorial Park of Honor

Valor Tours, Ltd. is pleased to draw attention to this unusual opportunity for family, friends or relatives of U.S. Servicemen and women who served in the Pacific during any of the major conflicts of the Twentieth century. As part of the Honiara Beautification Project, you may purchase a tree to be planted in the name of a Veteran, unit or ship in the Memorial Park. A plaque will be placed and dedicated when our group visits each August. Cost $130. Application form available upon request.

 in 1942/43, the tide of war in the Pacific was turned. The contest was hard....
 The cost was high.... The valor was exemplary.

HEALTH & TRAVEL DOCUMENTATION

Malaria can be a problem on Guadalcanal. Anti-Malaria medication is available from your doctor; however, we find that roll-on insect repellents work very well on exposed skin in the evening and early morning hours when mosquitoes are most prevalent. Also, natural citronella wristbands and ankle bands are very effective and non-toxic. We recommend that passengers wear long sleeved shirts and long pants in the evening hours and keep the air-conditioning on in your room. We also recommend that all passengers get tetanus and hepatitis inoculations. Check with your doctor. For those prone to seasickness bring some Dramamine for the day trip to Tulagi and Gavutu and the waters can get choppy in the afternoon. You will need a passport valid six months beyond date of travel. Visas for U.S. citizens are not required.

WHAT TO BRING

Casual clothes such as shorts, bathing suit, wash n'wear, loose fitting clothing, comfortable walking shoes, beach (water) shoes, snorkel gear, brimmed hat, suntan lotion, wash clothe, bottle of Woolite, plenty of film, camera (water proof if possible), wind breaker, back pack, flask to carry water, binoculars. If you are a diver, bring your own fins and regulator. Other dive equipment is available at the dive shop in the hotel. Leave expensive jewelry and high-heeled shoes at home. Carry medications, airline tickets, passport, cash and travelers checks on your person – do not pack in suitcase, as there are occasional delays. Travel light – one suitcase and one carry-on bag per person, please. Hotel has excellent 24-hour laundry facilities.

AIR TRANSPORTATION

We will fly Air Pacific 747 non-stop jet service from Los Angeles to Nadi, in the Fiji Islands, in economy class with 3 + 4 + 3 seating. From Nadi to Guadalcanal fly Solomon Airlines 767 jet service with 3 + 3 seating. Business class upgrade is available upon request for approximately $2685. Frequent flyer awards cannot be used toward the purchase of this tour. Deviations from the group air space will result in higher fares and additional administrative charges. These tours are based on an air/land package – the land portion cannot be purchased without the air, unless you live outside of the United States in which case arrangements can be made.

SINGLE TRAVELERS

When a tour member asks Valor Tours to seek a suitable roommate, we will do the best we can to oblige and find a colleague with common interests and habits. Valor Tours cannot be held responsible for incompatibility or guarantee a roommate. If a roommate cannot be found, the single supplement would apply.
